

J&P EXCLUSIVE PACKAGING

Four J&P packaging styles appeal to every gardener – and extend your selling season!

Our variety of packaging options lets you stock up on the world's finest roses and lengthen your rose-selling season from spring through fall. By offering roses in Redi-Plant® boxes, poly bags and colorful containers, you greatly expand your potential to sell roses, while giving gardeners exciting planting options. Call your J&P representative today to set up the right packaging program for your climate.

Garden Ease® Rose Liners

Fast. Easy. Economical.

Jackson & Perkins® Garden Ease® rose liners offer you the easiest way yet to purchase, pot, and grow roses. Now you can choose growing, non-dormant, potted liners in two sizes – standard 2-inch liners and jumbo 4-inch liners. Both are far easier to handle and require less time to prepare, pot, and plant than standard bareroot plants.

Super-Easy Redi-Plant® Boxes

A gardener's dream. Just zip off the top and plant them – box and all. The redesigned packages provide easy instructions. 90-day shelf life.

Colorful Containers

Ideal for customers who want instant color. Pre-potted roses arrive in leaf and bud for maximum impact. Plant now, or later. (2.25 gallon containers)

Water-Saving Poly Bags

They keep plant roots moist with minimal care. And their space-saving profile lets you offer more varieties. 30-day shelf life.

Do-it-Yourself Bareroot Roses

Pot them yourself! Your most cost-effective option when offering Jackson & Perkins® roses to your customers.
